Did you know that...?

The blue whale is the largest animal on Earth. An adult can grow longer than three school buses placed end to end.
The heart of a blue whale is one of the largest in the animal kingdom. Some of its blood vessels are large enough for a small child to fit through.
The ocean is home to animals of many different sizes. From tiny fish to the blue whale, the largest known animal in Earth's history.

IQcoloring.com