IQcoloring.com

Did you know that...?

Plowing is one of the most important jobs on a farm. The plow turns the soil to prepare it for new seeds and healthy crops.

Birds often follow behind the tractor because freshly turned soil makes it easier to find worms and insects.

Modern tractors can plow much larger fields in a single day than people or horses could in the past.